COTERIE BAZAAR & GIFT SHOP
The approach of the Holiday Season will be made more joyous this year by the women of the Coterie who are holding a Bazaar and Gift Shop at their rooms, Saturday, December 13th.

This is to be one of the most pretentious affairs that has been attempted in some years, and every member is striving for its success.

The welfare of the different booths will be looked after by the several leaders as follows:—Candy, Harriet Anderson;—Domestic, Pansy Douglas Apron, Olive Whitehead;—Fancy Work Grace Miller;—Agricultural, Jennie Jennings;—Baby and Doll, Louise Young;—and the Lily Pond, Lena Irely.

Of course one of the most attractive features of the day will be the fifty cent Chicken Pie dinner, under the supervision of Mrs. Searls, which will be ready at 11:30, and will be served to accompaniment of good music. There will also be a Cafeteria supper from 5:00 to 7:00.

The entertainment for the evening will be under the direction of Anna Tuttle, with especial fun-provoking stunts provided for the girls and boys. For the very little folks, Miss Fischer will hold a story hour from 3:00 to 5:00.

Then for those who would delve into the mysteries of the future, Madame Ozma will be present to reveal secrets unknown and unsuspected.
